TESTIMONIALS:

“Their approach is professional, courteous and obviously based on sound experience. Basically this Company did what they said they would do, when they said they would do it, which we valued.”

George and Ann Starr

“We'd just like to thank Harris Construction for the lintel work and new French doors they installed at our property.

The workmanship was of a high standard and the customer service was exceptional. We welcomed the advice and ideas offered to us and appreciated the tidy and friendly nature of your workmen. We would definitely use you again.

David and Shauna Flinch

“Harris Construction carried out the work quickly and efficiently with a minimum amount of disruption to our business. All the men involved were extremely courteous and considerate.

The work has all been done to a high standard and we are very pleased with the results. We will very likely be using Harris Construction in the future and would have no hesitation in recommending them.

COMPANY PROFILE:

York-based Harris Construction was launched in 2001 by Mark Harris.

An apprentice trained bricklayer with over 20 years building and construction experience, Mark knows the value of quality. That's why Harris Construction is proud to be associated with the National House Building Council, the Federation of Master Builders, and FENSA, the building industry gold standard for replacement windows and doors.

Harris Construction is also affiliated to the Independent Warranty Association, a scheme which provides insurance-backed guarantees for home improvement products supplied by IWA-approved suppliers.

Specialists in domestic and commercial building improvement, Harris Construction completes a wide range of building improvement projects, everything from small building extensions to million pound new builds.

All our work is fully project managed from start to finish by a team of highly qualified tradespeople committed to the highest standards of workmanship on every job, regardless of size or type.

Now teamed up with a team of home improvement specialists and financial consultant Jamie Wells, Harris Construction provides the complete package for all aspects of building work and home improvements, from design and build to arranging the finance.

Whether you're looking for a new kitchen or bathroom, refurbished office or shop space, or a complete renovation - Harris Construction is the answer to all your building improvement needs.
